

We would like to acknowledge the Robinson-Huron Treaty of 1850. We also further recognize that Laurentian University is located on the traditional lands of the Atikameksheng Anishnawbek and that the City of Greater Sudbury, also includes the traditional lands of the Wahnapiatae First Nation.

We extend our deepest respect to Indigenous peoples - as a sign of our continued relationship we will support Laurentian University's Truth and Reconciliation Task Force Recommendations.

Laurentian was incorporated on March 28, 1960, pursuant to An Act to Incorporate Laurentian University of Sudbury, S.O. 1960, c. 151 C. 154.

For over 60 years, Laurentian University of Sudbury (“Laurentian”) has operated as a publicly funded, bilingual and tricultural post-secondary institution in Northern Ontario, providing high-quality, postsecondary education to domestic and international undergraduate and graduate students.

The bilingual and tricultural nature of Laurentian is unique in Ontario and its impact on outcomes in the region is vital and crucial. Laurentian is an important source of learning to Northern Ontario and the thousands of students who otherwise would have difficulty accessing post-secondary education.

Laurentian University’s Strategic Plan 2024-2029 is a Plan for Connection, Innovation and Impact and is guided by the following values:

- Community;
- Integrity;
- Student Success;
- Stewardship; and
- Collaboration

As an organization that is governed by the Ontario Broader Public Sector Procurement

The SCoC applies to all Suppliers who provide goods or services to Laurentian University, as well as their Subcontractors. It establishes the minimum ethical, social, and environmental standards expected of Laurentian Suppliers. Additional requirements may be described in individual contracts executed with Laurentian.

Laurentian expects Suppliers to strive to exceed both international and industry best practices. Laurentian also expects that its Suppliers encourage and work with their own suppliers and Subcontractors to ensure that they also strive to meet the principles of this Code of Conduct.
